Especially when it comes to money. Find out what your parents don t know! Learn how to become wealthy without falling asleep over another boring finance book. Splash some water on your face and grab a coffee because your wakeup call is here. Your paycheck will matter unbelievably little in the pursuit of wealth. Just got a degree? Don t care. Hoping to land a better paying job? Care even less. How you manage debt throughout your life on the other hand, matters a great deal. For college students, it matters that much more. I played the college debt game and came out on top. Here s the most important thing to take away from my book: The amount of debt you graduate with determines, to an incredible degree of accuracy, how much wealth you will build in your life. Those saddled with large sums are the statistical sharecroppers, while those with no debt are Gatsby. Look How Big My Debt Is digs into my personal struggle through...
