KLEINE SCHRIFTEN (10)

RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 120 pages. LC Number: KF27 . G65917 2006i OCLC Number: (OCoLC)291090440 Subject: Information storage and retrieval systems -- Medical care -- United States. Excerpt: . . . 11 tures of the program. Adoption of health information technology is an important healthcare improvement that is being implemented by many of our health plans on behalf of their customers. In our efforts to ensure healthcare rates are competitive and con-sumer choice is maximized, we are encouraging the use of health information technology for medical recordkeeping purposes and for many provider-to-consumer processes. As the administrator of the countrys largest employee health insurance program, OPM plays a key role in fulfilling President Bushs vision of making medical records easily accessible to con-sumers through the adoption of advanced technologies. Ten days ago, the President signed the Executive order, Promot-ing Quality and Efficient Health Care in Federal Government Ad-ministered or Sponsored Health Care Programs. The order firmly underscores the Presidents continued commitment to the pro-motion of quality and efficient delivery of health care. With the order, the President is greatly expanding the information that will be made available and he is committing the Federal Government to transparency in pricing and quality, adopting health IT stand-ards, and providing insurance options that reward cost-conscious consumers. OPM is strongly committed to working with FEHB carriers on carrying out the Presidents goals and objectives. In fact, we have already begun taking steps in this direction. To ensure the electronic availability of quality and price informa-tion, OPM is working with carriers to encourage them to make their health IT systems interoperable. OPM is also continuing to work with carriers to ensure that FEHB enrollees have access to innovative health insurance options that allow consumers to select health plans with...
