

Falling into Place: An Intimate Geography of Home

By Catherine Reid

Beacon Press, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Reprint. 214 x 149 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Quietly powerful essays, weaving keenly observed insights into the mysteries of nature with those of family and community It s not easy, Catherine Reid writes, to love a person and a place in equal measure. Love she does, however, as described in these intimate, lyric essays about the land and people around her. With the inside perspective of a native New Englander combined with her outsider status as a lesbian, Reid explores such paradoxes as those that arise from harnessing wild rivers or legalizing same-sex marriage. Her fascination with natural phenomena whether bird hibernation, the arrival of fishers in suburbia, or the explosion of amphibious life in the wet weeks of spring is captured in writing that pays as much attention to the sounds of a sentence as to the rhythms of the landscapes she wanders. Ultimately, Reid finds herself having to choose between her farmhouse near the Berkshires and a job in the South, between her known role in the land s stories and a new story yet to be written. Solace comes from companions...
