THE STORY OF TWO OLD SUITCASES

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In the inner-city ghettos of Jamaica, a woman is pummeled within inches of her life as the neighbors raid her shanty home looking for something even they cannot bring themselves to believe. An angelic eight month old baby is found, within minutes of her death, under the concrete stairwell in a shopping mall in a frigid Canadian winter day. There is no note on the baby and the police have no clues to go by. Public pressure rises. People demand the capture of the person responsible for such a heinous act. Citizens clamor for answers from the police but the detectives are looking for a needle in a haystack. Two young children are taken into protective services when a SWAT team raids a subversive Black Panthers meeting and finds the kids in a room full of smoke and plans of sabotage. These hellish acts haunt Arberto and Melanie Warden. Devoted to their faith and family, they believe in a simple life and strive to live as Jesus did. Although from different backgrounds, their fervent determination to live by the Scriptures unites them. Together, they fight the evil around them. Active in their church and Toronto community, the Wardens spend their time counseling children-at-risk, pregnant teenage mothers and others who have lost their way while the couple grows their own devoted family. Their meticulous clean appearance together with their charismatic feisty personality, wins them the hearts of those they hope to save. However, their model-citizen status begins to crumble when Arberto s radical interpretation of the Scriptures is questioned. As Arberto s influence soars in the church, a small but vociferous group secretly attempts to undermine him. They think...
