Army War College, 2006 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)71012770 Subject: Nuclear nonproliferation. Excerpt: . . . or Japanese leaders. In their long histories, China has rarely been democratic; Japan has rarely been pacifistic; Korea has rarely been unhindered by great power conflicts. The withdrawal of U. S. forces that would accompany the abrogation of our treaty and alliance commitments in East Asia would likely harbingering a future reeking with the unpleasantness and chauvinism of East Asia's past. Rather than serving as a rally point for reform and genuine opening of the society, the 2008 Beijing Olympic games could be used as a bugle for Chinese nationalism. If the United States and China fail to reach a clear understanding about nuclear proliferation, the withdrawal of U. S. forces from South Korea and Japan will only embolden a confident and assertive China. Chinese nationalists will want to throw their weight around East Asia. In this environment, I believe that as soon as China achieves domestic stability, it will try to penetrate culturally into neighboring countries. The Chin, Sui, Tang, and...

Reviews

I actually started looking over this publication. It really is rally interesting throug studying period. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
