The Division of the North, which had been singled out as the victim of the political intrigues of Senor Carranza, fearing, more than any other, the frustration of the revolutionary ideals, proposed at the Torreon Conference, in conjunction with the Division of the Northeast, a Convention established on democratic bases, to compel the First Chief to fulfil the revolutionary program, guaranteeing the creation of a democratic government, and the carrying out of the reforms necessary for the welfare of the people. Senor Carranza refused to accept the Convention, on the terms proposed at the Torreon Conference, and decided that, on entering the capital of the Republic, the Constitutionalist Army should summon a meeting of generals and state governors, to take...
