Organization of Council - Mayor: At its first regular meeting, the council shall elect, by a majority vote, a president and a vice president. The president of the council shall be mayor of the city. He shall preside at all meetings of the council. In his absence or disability, the vice president shall perform the duties of president and mayor. In the absence or disability of both president and vice president, the other members of the council shall select one of their number to perform the duties of president and mayor. The council shall determine its own procedure. Section 10. Meetings: All meetings of the council shall be public. It shall keep a journal of its proceedings, which shall be a public record. The council shall hold at least one legislative meeting each week, and shall hold meetings daily for the transaction or business. At any meeting of the council, three members shall constitute a quorum, but a less number may adjourn from time to time. The council shall provide by ordinance a means by which a minority may compel the attendance of absent members. Section 11. Voting Power: Each commissioner shall be entitled to a vote. The mayor shall not have any veto power. Section 12. Form and Manner of Legislation: All legislation and appropriations of money shall be by ordinance, save where there is a special fund created for a particular purpose; payments from such fund shall be made on order of the council....
