2012 IS NOT THE END: PROPHECIES OF A HINDU SAGE: BASED ON THE LIFE AND THE KAALA-GNYAANAM WRITINGS OF THE 17TH CENTURY TELUGU SAINT SREE POTHULURU VEERA BRAHMENDRA SWAMI, FROM SOUTHERN INDIA

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 286 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.7in. This is essentially a book dealing with the subject of Futurology in religion. It is based on the life and the prophecies of the seventeenth Century Telugu Saint from Southern India, by name, Pothuluru Veera Brahmendra Swami. Swamiji had written 3, 32, 000 palm leaf booklets containing the future events of all the Nations in the World. They are collectively known as the Kaala-Gnyaanam (meaning, Knowledge of Time). Among them, as on date, only 3 booklets are available to us. The rest remain safely buried under a Tamarind Tree in a religious Institution in Banaganapalle, Andhra Pradesh, INDIA, to be retrieved only by the long awaited Saviour of Mankind, the Kalki Avatara. The contents of the available three booklets have sufficient information to educate and to warn the Human Race about the trying days ahead. What awes the non Hindus is that, the protagonist of this book Sage Veera Brahmendra Swami, had entered into Jeeva Samaadhi (i. e. , walking alive into a previously constructed Tomb, which immediately thereafter is sealed from outside), in the year 1693. This Tomb is situated at Kandimallayapalli, a remote village in the Kadapa District, Andhra Pradesh, INDIA. It is more than 300 years now, and the faithful believe that Swamiji is alive in the Tomb, in a state of deep Tapasya. The devout expect that he would break open the structure and come out, at the time when the Avatara Kalki would descend from the skies. All major religions are expecting a Saviour; and it is interesting to note that the Saviour in these religions comes down from the clouds, and the descriptions that follow relating His arrival, have significant similarities. Could...
