Not illustrated. 1920 Excerpt: .to me well to impress, upon the more thinking students at least, the idea that all they saw had not happened so, without the earnest agency of human beings; but that it had been the result of the earnest life-work of men and women, and that no life-work to which a student might aspire could be more worthy.--Andrew D. White (Autobiography, vol. i, p. 409). THE LIBRARY BUILDING THE LIBRARY BUILDING, the gift of Henry W. Sage, was designed by William H. Miller of Ithaca and was completed in 1891. It houses the General Library of the University. The Library Building is open on week days, during term time, from 8 a. m. till 10: 30 p. m. In vacation it is open on week days from 9 a. m. till 5 p. m. Books on the open shelves of the general reading room or of the reference library may be used in any part of either room by any reader. If other books are wished they must be sought in the card catalogue at the end of the general reading room, where the reader will find blank slips for their requisition at the delivery desk. The privilege of removing books for home use is enjoyed by officers of the University and to a limited extent by students. Visitors desiring to make special and detailed study of some subject may be admitted to the stack room or to the seminary rooms by special permission. Several...
