Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Mount Hope Cemetery in Dorchester and West Roxbury: With the Exercises at the Consecration Every one of our cemeteries, he remarked, is already full, to an extent which, in a greater or less degree, is prejudicial to the public health. Acting upon this suggestion, a joint special committee, appointed by the city government, made a critical inspection of every suitable site for the contemplated purpose, within reasonable distance from the city. The grounds now constituting Mount Hope Cemetery excited their most favorable consideration, and would have commanded their ultimate preference. Some difference of views, however, in regard to certain details connected with the subject, led to the conclusion that the desired object might be more successfully accomplished if left to individual enterprise, and its subsequent concerns confided to the control of an association of shareholders, personally interested in the promotion and continued duration of the undertaking, and duly organized under the perpetually binding provisions of our State laws. In strict conformity with the requirements of the Revised Statutes, this company was regularly incorporated in the...
