Excerpt: . . . Reynolds v. Reynolds. officers of the corporation, who must pass on its sufficiency, and it therefore comes within the scope of their authority to say whether proof of the losses is sufficient. It may be added that in ascertaining and settling losses they frequently act upon personal investigations by themselves or their agents, and thus obtain knowledge that renders the preliminary proofs wholly immaterial. In this case there was evidence tending to show not only an implied, but an express, waiver of the preliminary proofs; and the court are of opinion that it should have been submitted to the jury, and was sufficient to have authorized them to find for the plaintiffs on that point. The verdict should be set aside, and a new trial granted. Michael Reynolds Vs. Bridget Reynolds. This court has power, under Gen. Sts, e. 107, 4, to declare a marriage void, into which a man was induced to enter by confiding in representations of the woman whom he took for his wife that she was chaste, when in fact she was with child by another man, if her husband repudiated her as soon as he had reason to know the fact. Libel for a sentence of nullity of marriage, setting forth that the libellant was married to the respondent on the 11th of October 1856; that he was then only seventeen years of age, and the respondent was thirty years, or over; that he had been acquainted with...
