Excerpt: . . . of serving one year in the army instead of three years. In order to get this diploma the student must have obtained at least 65 per cent. of the total possible number of marks obtainable during the two years course, and the system of marking is very exacting. Certain marks are allowed to the holders of the above-mentioned diploma when openly competing for certain Government posts for which their commercial training will be specially valuable. When students have obtained the school diploma they are permitted to compete for the Foreign Travelling Exhibitions, which are tenable for two years. Their value during the first year varies from 100 to 160, and during the second year from 80 to 120. Thirtyfour scholarships are given annually. These scholarships may be held in any suitable foreign country. The school does not undertake to find employment for the students when they finish their studies. This work is undertaken by an Old Boys Association, which finds little difficulty in so doing. The School recruits only by means of Competitive Entrance Examinations. All competitors must be at least sixteen years of age on July 1st of the year when competing. The following are the obligatory and optional subjects, and they give some idea of the preparatory studies of the competitors. The obligatory tests are: --Written Tests. --Mathematics, Arithmetic, Algebra, Essay in French, Precis Writing, Spelling, Writing, Composition in one Foreign Language (with the aid of a dictionary), Exercises and Translation. Oral...
