Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Author s PREFACE: In the early days of the war, I came away from a talk with Mr. Hoover and Dr. Taylor of the Department of Agriculture, convinced that unless I could make candy without sugar and cake, and bread without wheat, I was daily depriving our suffering Allies and our Soldiers of food they sorely needed-Soldiers do not fight well if underfed, nor have they good morale if their families at home are hungry. So it seemed to me that women s first war activity should be to cooperate fully with the Food Administration; and I then and there determined that I would sell and serve in my shops only foods that entirely conformed to the requirements of the United States Food Administration. It has meant a good deal of very interesting work, but the results have far exceeded my hopes, and all these recipes are now in daily use in my shops. My opportunities for testing recipes are many times greater than those of most women, and war time foods that my patrons will order and...
