This item is printed on demand - Print on Demand Neuware - Essay from the year 2010 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies - Culture and Applied Geography, grade: -, University of Kassel (English Language and Literature Studies), course: Conference, language: English, comment: Influence of Culture in a foreign Language Class , abstract: The main aims/questions that will be discussed in this paper are the importance and need of learning English in today's world right from the primary stage and the hindrances in teaching the English Language in a non-English speaking country, for example India. Teaching English becomes more and more relevant particularly in a multilingual and multicultural country like India. In the framework of a comparative study projecting eclectic teaching Methodology examples from the classroom will be presented and discussed. Taking a pan-Indian view on the country's education system, we observe that not only are there various types of schools catering to each section of the Indian society, correspondingly there are various boards of education following different English Language and Literature syllabi. A significant difference is also observed between the private and the government schools in...
