Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Pursuant to a congressional request, GAO evaluated the Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA) efforts to reconcile and audit the Indian trust fund accounts and develop a strategic financial management plan to remedy its long-standing trust fund financial management problems. GAO found that: (1) in May 1991, BIA awarded a contract for reconciliation of the Indian trust fund accounts, which involves reconstructing trust account transactions so that account holders are provided the most accurate accounting information possible; (2) BIA and its contractor have since evaluated what the reconciliation effort would entail and have concluded that full reconciliation is neither possible nor cost-effective because of missing records, poor documentation, and the volume of data to review; (3) the projected cost of the reconciliation effort is substantial, and in some cases the cost of reconciling accounts exceeds their value; (4) BIA must address the root cause of its long-standing problems in its trust fund accounting systems, or it will continue to have unreconciled accounts; (5) Congress has directed BIA to develop a plan to improve trust fund financial management, including a method to keep accounts accurate in the future; and (6) although BIA has devised several short-term plans, it has not yet devised a comprehensive plan, which is a critical first step in improving its financial management operations.
